Dear Ma'am Ruth,

Greetings from Chanum Foundation Inc. and Tam-awan Village!

Tam-awan International Arts Festival (TIAF 15) to be held in Tam-Awan Village, Baguio City, from October 10 to 12, 2025 themed "The Curation Journey: Living Galleries, Telling Stories," in tandem with the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) and done in celebration of Museums and Galleries Month.

TIAF 15 aims to highlight the importance of gallery curation in storytelling to preserve heritage, arts, and culture not only within the Cordillera but also across the entire Philippines. It is also envisioned to become a living gallery fostering an exchange of ideas among curators from all over the Philippines, while also emphasizing the importance of a well-curated show event and project.

It is in this light that we invite three (3) members from the DepEd SARANGANI ILLUSTRATORS to be part of this celebration.

For this year, Chanum Foundation Inc. will ONLY SHOULDER ACCOMMODATION AND MEALS for the three selected members.

For our cultural night, may we request participants to bring or present a cultural, art, or heritage piece from your area that can be shown and explained to our guests OR PERFORMANCE ART to be presented our audience?

Please coordinate questions and concerns, with our festival secretariat team, Ms. Jessie Esteban at 0917 142 4107 or email us at tamawanfestival@gmail.com by August 4, 2025.

Please see attached endorsement which you may use and we hope to see you for our 15th TIAF!
