DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 073 , s. 2026

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE APPROVED SIX (6) MONTH MORATORIUM ON PROVIDENT FUND LOAN PAYMENTS

To: All DepEd personnel
This Division

1. This Office informs all Department of Education (DepEd) Provident Fund borrowers in this Division of the officially approved financial relief measures following the June 8, 2026 earthquake.
2. Based on the directive from the Office of the Undersecretary for Finance dated June 17, 2026, a six (6)-month moratorium on the payment of Provident Fund loan amortizations has been granted to all affected borrowers in Region XII.
3. The suspension of payments will run from July 2026 to December 2026. All regular salary deductions for these loan amortizations will officially resume in January 2027.
4. Please be advised that due to payroll processing timelines, the Provident Fund loan deduction will still be reflected on the monthly payslips. The deducted amount will instead be refunded into their respective LBP salary accounts at the end of the month.
5. This memorandum is issued for your information and guidance during the ongoing recovery period.
6. For clarifications, please contact Glen J. Gula, Payroll in-charge officer or Joan Neniveh T. Landero, Provident Fund Loan in-charge.
